PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I, Special Agent Brandon Stiefer, declare under penalty of perjury, the following is true and correct:

On April 05, 2008, Heriberto REYES entered the United States through the Calexico, California East Port of Entry. REYES was the driver, and registered owner of a 2003 Toyota Camry, bearing CAUS license plate 4ZYD996. REYES was accompanied by his wife, and two (2) children. Customs and Border Protection Officers discovered fourteen (14) packages concealed within both rocker panels of the vehicle. One (1) package was probed and tested positive for cocaine. A total of 32.90 kilograms (72.38 pounds) of cocaine was discovered.

REYES was arrested in violation of Title 21 United States Code (USC) 952, Importation of a Controlled Substance. REYES acknowledged and waived his Miranda Rights. REYES admitted knowledge of smuggling narcotics, and stated that he was to be paid $3000.00 US to drive the vehicle to Los Angeles. REYES stated that his family was unaware of the narcotics concealed within the vehicle. REYES was processed and booked into the Imperial County Jail to await his initial appearance before a U.S. Magistrate Judge. REYES' family was subsequently released per the on duty Assistant United States Attorney.

Executed on April 05, 2008 at 2300 hrs.

Special Agent Brandon Stiefer

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of 1 page, I find probable cause to believe that the defendant(s) named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on April 05, 2008 in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section(s) 952 & 960.
